"Prince" Charles was in Ghana last week and Akufo-Addo awarded him the highest national honours of Ghana. But he didn't stop there... he also had a huge poster in Accra of him and the "prince" celebrating colonialism and looking forward to a Neo-colonial agenda (according to my interpretation)

Nnngrrr, how about we start with you writing down a sub Saharan nnngrrr math theorem and proof, use a nngrrr script and a nngrrr language,

Write us down one sub Saharan nnngrrr chemistry equation, use a nngrrr language and script.

Name one forged artifact made by sub Saharan nnngrrzz using nngrr technology and nngrr made metals.

"There were over 100 life changing inventions by Africans during european slavery alone: (inc. fridge freezer, traffic light, light filament, blood bank, escalator, gas mask, telephone, heart surgery to name but a few)"

Nnngrrr, none of those are nnngrrr achievement s. This has all been debunked countless times. But lets have some fun, give us the nngrrzz name who invented the maths smelting iron, or nautical or geographical abilities etc etc) and caucasians had to be implored and taught to bathe by first the Blaka Moors in europe (700 yrs) and then later by queen victoria and then bath houses were introduced which are now swimming baths! Natural soap (black) is natural to west africa along with neem, bamboo and hemp (Hemp alone has 20,000+ uses) which we made hundreds of natural products from including medicines, clothing, oils, foods, papyrus and even housing whilst whites were in the caucas mountains living in caves sleeping with dogs (as they still do today)

White's are so backward they've used corpse medicine for centuries (dead bodies) which means they drink human blood and eat body parts claiming it to be medicine and it's fully documented along with their many other twisted concepts of being a civilised people (illusions of grandeur) and it's very easy to destroy any ignorant, uneducated, white supremacist views because they simply don't know anything about history or factual evidence to support their miss placed claims of superiority...

So the above remark is really just a self exposure of this persons own uneducated and very ignorant mind"

Don't be stupid. Didn't you go to school? Didn't you hear them teach about evolution and ape like , not us. Why do you think they are fascinated by eating bloodied red meat, they call it rare meat. They are fascinated by fire and the worst offenders of arson. They love gore, horror and violence. All the characteristics of pagan uncivilised cave dwellers.

Didn't your stupid self know that only the Bantu sub Sahara people are 100% pure human? Foolish man! We are the chosen people and they know it. Wake up!

Go do something useful and do some reading and educate yourself. No Bantu person ever climbed down from trees. We were created in the Most High God of Israel's image and we never left to mate with no apes and live in the caves of Europe. Maybe you have some of the Caucasian Neanderthal genes yourself, which would explain your stupid and dump comments.

Educate yourself foolish man and do some Googling and Youtube research and you will find that that your former slave/colonial masters genes which are running through your veins make you part Neanderthal and stupid in the head just like them. You have to have some of their Neanderthal genes in you to have written that piece of BS.

William Ohene you are so naive, it's beyond belief! You honestly think that other African leaders are not busy making deals with the highest bidders to take over Africa again. Ever heard of the saying, history repeats itself if you didn't learn the first time? Well guess what ALL and I mean ALL these African men leading Africa's countries are busy meeting and negotiating who is going to buy what from them, and YOU ARE NOT INVITED! No country is SAFE.

Have a read here and prepare for a bumpy future of African Colonialism 2.0

<https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/asia/china-africa-beijing-forum-investment-interest-free-loans-a8522376.html>

Zimbabwe coon president , Freemason and occultist Emmerson Mnangagwa himself tells you all the truth from the meeting in Beijing, China: "There is now a transition to a new world order and those who don't see it are blind,"

He was talking to blind people like YOU!

form of governance where the leaders report to their European overseers who tell them what to do and when to do it) or dictatorship (militant authoritarian/despotic form of "leadership" where the dictators are supplied weapons by European overseers who tell what to do and when to do it). Ultimately, as long as the people continue to consent to those forms of governance/leadership, they are doomed to what they are doomed to. African nations need to go back to the original forms of leadership they were given by the Almighty and that is a council of Judges/Elders who will have a spokesman. Read the Books of Moses and the Book of Judges. It was after that the people said they wanted a "King" over them like the other gentile nations and the Almighty let them have that and since then, it degenerated into oppression for the people and nothing done for the uplifting of the people. No one person (President, Prime Minister, Head of State etc) should have so much power to determine people's lives and the course of their futures.

Dudu Nkosi.

...the intervention...let's see.

I interpret scriptures differently and CHOOSE to see what is happening to us GLOBALLY, as an indicator from the most high to DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT....but sitting in comfort zones waiting for "Gods will" is many Christians default setting..and it keeps us in bondage...imo.

How do you know God isn't calling us to unite and take back our Motherland from the traitors and colonizers, right now?

To me, the "no way round this...lets watch and pray" rhetoric is what got and kept us in this situation in the first place for 500 years. (1000 if you look at what the Arabs have done to us..and are still doing).

We are at war, but the blind don't see.

Too many blinded by religion and not enough empowered by the faith.

What do you know of God's will really, if you have no faith in man fulfilling his role in it?

I have FAITH that NOW is the time we are being called.

Now..not tomorrow...not in month...not in year..not in a decade.....NOW!

I Have faith!

God's will is infinite..and if God is the Eternal Architect, which HE IS, then what we do as a people, to liberate ourselves from white supremacy is God's will.

Prayer is good, so keep watching and praying, but I will act ALSO.

I believe I have been called to walk in faith that God will support my endeavors in regards to the Motherland.

I will be returning to Africa a.s.a.p.

Ghana is where my family live and I will be involved politically, once I'm there....as a citizen too.

Ase!

The trick is that blacks do not have U.S. Citizenship. they are 14th amendment slaves. They have no human rights only a few civil rights and privileges. These civil rights must be approved by the president every 25 years. Blacks are seriously mis-educated and even the black colleges are owned by Europeans who set the curriculum. Amerikkkan blacks have many problems. We are religiously bamboozled and brainwashed to believe the dogma which the psychopathic Christian Europeans have tricked peoples around the world. All religions came from the wall of Egypt (Kemit). We are mentally enslaved and most after college do not read. Those that can read won't except novels. The history is the U.S. is his-story, none is factual. Sports professionals, actors, music entertainers are tricked by the European hoes who marry these young men for 5-8 years, two babies and then divorce. The European hoe's marries a European male and live happily ever after with the brothers millions and many brothers end up injured mentally and broke. I say if you want to test the waters go ahead, but do not bring the pale face hoe home to mother.

Displaced Africans (the diaspora) cannot return to the continent in mass without an infrastructure, adequate living accommodations and security, established in advance! The funds that we need were paid in advance through slavery and are in the hands of (America, Europe and Africa), those that are responsible for our displacement and abuse! With all the corrupt leaders involved, things are not looking favorable for our return and it's not good for us to remain disconnected! Without unity we will never be able to recover from this

Is Ghana President a Puppet of Western Powers? Your eyes are not fooling you, it is exactly what you are seeing. ALL AU Leaders are sell outs! They are of the privileged class among their people. If nothing else, the class difference among Africans in general, Ghanaian specifically, do not see the world as the general population does. One more thing, Europeans and Chinese want to MOVE INTO AFRICA! That is one of the reasons they initiated this migrant exodus from North Africa into Europe. You will wake up one day and your governments will be replaced by Europeans & Chinese! In these peoples collectively warped minds that is the only way they feel they can not only survive, but also to maintain rulership over the earth, FROM AFRICA! WHAT WE ARE SEEING IS FAR BEYOND COLONIALISM! THIS IS THE MASS REPLACEMENT OF NATIVE AFRICANS BY 'OTHERS' and this happening with the blessings of your leaders. Connect the dots, the conclusion is obvious. The peoples better regurgitate your 'leaders' as soon as possible, your collective lives are at stake!

Kodwo Armah, you really should be losing sleep over it! The video clearly shows what Dr. Mumbai describes, that being the Ghanaian President elevating the very personification of Colonialism, Prince Charles of the British Commonwealth and the entire colonial experience he represents, with praise and admiration. My conclusion, that "The peoples better regurgitate your 'leaders' as soon as possible, your collective lives are at stake!" was, in my mind, the logical outcome of your "upper class" giving your country away with smiles and praise to your enemies. Had nothing to do with me personally, I'm just connecting the dots of current Anglo/African events with the connecting lines of historical record. the resulting map confirms to me that my understanding of the aristocratic and merchant class of Anglo-Saxon is accurate. That they almost never implement machinations that yields only one outcome in their favor. It's the Berlin Conference 2.0: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Berlin_Conference again, and they are willing to shed African and Chinese blood to get it. Among these types they believe that their future depends on more than one prize (raw resources, climate, undeveloped space, slaves: these are the usual suspects) if they can kill enough to "win" it. Scary thing about it is that the Chinese are feeling the same way. Their tactics started off more subtle, but as the good Dr Mumbi has been warning us, the Chinese have taken the gloves off and laid bare their intentions. Africa is looking more like where World War 3 may play out.
